

Easter Egg Hunt and Duck Derby this Saturday

Tuesday, 27 March 2018 16:24

La Mirada~Hop in for another fun-filled Easter egg Hunt on Saturday, March 31 from 9 to 11 a.m. at La Mirada Regional Park.

This free event is perfect for the whole family to enjoy and features crafts, games, music, and photos with the Easter Bunny. The egg hunts promptly begin at 10:15 a.m. and continues throughout the morning for children ages 10 and under.

La Mirada Historical Advisory Council members will be on hand to take pre-orders for the soon to be released new city-sanctioned history book, "La Mirada 1986-2016, Three Decades of Change and Challenge, Stability and Achievement."

The La Mirada Kiwanis Club will be serving a pancake breakfast throughout the event, as well as hosting the annual Duck Derby at Splash!, which raises funds to support community causes.
